Who has a good article to sell, and who advertises vigorously and liberally. Advertising is truly the life of trade. All enterprising and

The President and Secretary Blaine Very Badly Cut Up Over the REJECTION OF HALSTEAD.

No Use at the White House for Sena- Henry Trescott.

BLAINE BY NO MEANS THE PRESIDENT.

tors Who Opposed M. H.

General Harrison's Backbone Stiffened by the Charges Once Made-A Senator Thinks the Rejection of Halstend Shouldn't So Affect the President-A Again be Sent to the Senate-Blaine Never Knows What Harrison is Going

The President feels badly cut up over the rejection of Halstead by the Senate. Mr. Blaine is also hurt. The Republican Senators who voted against the Cincinnati editor will not ask any favors at the White House or State Department-for awhile, at least. It is rumored that the President will renominate Halstead and give the Senate a chance to reverse its action of Saturday. In Washington the idea that Blaine was to be President is about exploded. Such a rumor, it is said, stiffened General Harrison's backbone and made him declare himself, PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, March 31 .- The Presi dent and Secretary Blaine feel very much outraged at the action of the Senate in rejecting Mr. Halstead, and the Senators who voted against him will not find the atmosphere of either the White House or the State Department healthful for some time state Department healthful for some time yet. A gentleman who was driving for two hours with Mr, Blaine on Saturday said that he talked of nothing else than Mr.

Halstead's rejection; that he seemed to feel worse over it than he did over his own defeat for the Presidency.

It appears that there were several Republican Senators who didn't vote for Mr.

Plumb and Ingalls. Evarts, Dawes and Cullom were paired. Jones, Stewart and ship subsidies, and the act of last May pro-

The Senators say they cannot understand why the President should show so very much feeling over Mr. Halstead's rejection. Said one: "He has rejected our nominees, and we have just as good a right to reject his. Under the Constitution the Senate shares the appointing power with the President. We advise and consent that certain people shall be appointed to office. I have The Sanity of the Noted Patent Medicis een up to the White House and nominated half a dozen men, and the President has rejested them all.

Ounv Very Auxious About Leeds. "I don't see why he should be mad because I simply oppose the confirmation of one of his nominees. There is Quay, for example. The President is going to reject his nomination for postmaster at Philadelphia, and I reckon that Quay is a great deal more anxious that Bill Leeds should be postmuster at Philadelphia than the ident was that Murat Halstead should be Minister to Berlin. If the President refuses to advise and consent to the appointment of Bill Leeds, I don't see why he him the appearance of a Frenchman. should complain if Quay refuses to advise was famous for many years previous to 1871 and consent to the appointment of Hal- for the gorgeous way in which he spent the will renominate Halstead, and give him an- Ri

Medill Russ Awny From Danger. The Washington Post suggests that Uncle Joe Medill be given a chance to wrestle as soon as he heard of the rejection of his friend Halstead, Mr. Medill took the train for New York.

A leading Senator who voted for Halstead said this afternoon: "The President about two weeks. Already arrangements need not be surprised if he gets into a row are being made for the reception of Mr. with the Senate, and if he does it will be his own fault. He seems to think that he Baltimore county. The residence is underis solely responsible for the good conduct of going repairs, and will be ready for occuthis Government, and we want a share in pancy within a week. All the horses and the responsibility. I have quit going to the White House to ask for appointments, and now when a man comes here and asks me to for Mr. Garrett. There will probably be a go with him I always beg off and write him covered walk arranged pretty much as was a letter that he can take up nimself. a letter that he can take up himself.

He Owns All the Offices Himself. "I have been up twice to ask for appointments that I thought my State was entitled to, and which any other President would have given me without a word. But General Harrison acted as though all the offices belonged to him, and that I was the 1 to beg. horrow or steal one, and the President appears to be quite as independent of his Cabinet officers as he is of the members of the Senste. 27 The reports published so extensively after the election that Mr. Blaine was to be President of the United States were not true. These publications seem to have affected the President's backbone, and he o'clock and left orders to be called at a late on the part of the United States to the conererce of American nations is an even more conspicuous example of Presidential independence. It was given out at the State Department on Friday that these nominations would not be made until after the Senate adjourned, and yet there was a telegram from the White House in the hands of a Senator announcing that they would be sent to the Senate on Saturday. Although Mr. Blaine claims a patent on the Congress of American Nations, the President appears to have taken the matter entirely out of his hands, and there are but two names in the entire list of delegates that may be attributed to Mr. Blaine, namely, those of Carnegie and William He Consults With No Onc.

The President consulted with no one, so far as can be learned, in making these selections. He certainly did not consult with Mr. Frye, who introduced the bill in the Senate and secured its passage; nor with Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, who managed the measure in the House. Mr. Frye unerstood from the State Department that the appointments were not to be made at this session, and Mr. Blaine is reported to Done of His Own Medicine-Onny's Feet- have assured certain Senators who had caning for Leeds-Hulstend's Name May didates that there was no immediate necessity to present their names.

As one Senator expressed it, the President to Do-A Dumping Ground Found for has used this Congress of American Nations Men Not Good Enough for Foreign as a dumping ground for gentlemen for whom he could not find foreign missions.

VERY EMPTY HONORS.

Little Prospect in View of Very Much for Mr. Carnegie and His Fellow Delegates to Do-The Congress of Nations Not Likely to Pan Ont Very Big.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, March 31 .- When Mr. Blaine was Secretary of State seight, years ago, one of his pet projects was a Congress of American Nations, to be held in Washington, a project which was generally remarked on as increasing the points of resemblance between his career and that of Henry Clay. The invitation was sent to the South American States in November, 1881, but the project failed because of the difficulties then existing between Chili and Peru and Mexico and Guatemala.

It is a rather curious fact that the act of Congress providing for a Congress of American Nations this year was passed last May, before it was known that Mr. Blaine was to be Secretary of State; even before the national conventions were held, and so Mr. Blaine finds a continental Congress already ordered, but it is no more certain have accepted, and unless all or very nearly all accept, it will be idle to attempt to hold Halstead, but only four Republican votes a congress. Chili is unfriendly to the conagainst him. For the benefit of the President and Mr. Blaine the following accurate list of those who opposed the confirmation of the Field Marshal is given:

The Opponents of Mr. Halstend.
Quay, Everts, Dawes, Cullom, Teller, Plumb, Ingalls, Jones of Nevada, Stenart and Stanford—10 in all. Those who voted against him on Saturday were Quay, Teller, Plumb and Ingalls. Evarts, Dawes and

Stanford did not vote at all, but would have voted had their assistance been necessary to secure rejection.

Stanford did not vote at all, but would have voted had their assistance been necessary to secure rejection.

Sup subsidies, and the act of last May providing for the calling of the congress was pushed by gentlemen who want Congress to vote subsidies to steamers running to Central and South American ports. Chili is tral and South American ports. Chili is not only unfriendly to the United States on account of the part we took, or are accused of having taken, in the war between Chili and Peru, but the commercial interests of Chili are mainly in English hands, and they are not anxious to have the

HELMBOL D AGAIN HELPLESS.

Man Questioned Once More. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, March 31 .- Dr. Henry T. Helmbold was arrested late on Saturday atterneon by Policeman Kerns, who found him helpless in West One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street. In the Harlem Police Court, to-day, he was sent by Justice White to Bellevue Hospital for examinaas to his sanity. He was examined by Drs. Field, Douglass and Fitch and pronounced able to take care of himself, and his son Elmer L. Helmbold was permitted to take

Dr. Helmbold is a rotund little man with a long gray mustache and goatee that gives and consent to the appointment of Halstead."

It is believed by some that the President will renominate Halstead and give him any will renominate Halstead and give him any omingdale, K#kbride's, in Philade other chance. Mr. Harrison is a very obstinate man, and if Mr. Halstead desires it lease from the latter was secured after a long he will send his name to the Senate a sec- and expensive fight. There was nothing the matter with him on Saturday but too much to drink.

GARRETT IS AFRAID.

with the Senate over the Berlin mission, but | The Fear of Belng Kidnapped Preys Upon His Mind.

PETECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BALTIMORE, March 31 .- It is understood that the Garrett party will return here in Garrett at his country seat, "Uplands," in carriages are now at this place, and no ex-

The Southern trip has not proved as beneficial to Mr. Garrett as was hoped. He is still very irritable, and far from being a well man. The fear of being kidnapped is said to have preyed upon his mind and made him nervous.

HE LOST THE BATTLE

A Railroad Man Suicides, But Doesn't Want Anything Said About It.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR ! St. Louis, March 31.-Asa W. Kellogg, general agent of the Southern Pacific Rail way at Cincinnati, committed suicide in the o'clock and left orders to be called at a late hour in the morning. He failed to respond to repeated calls and the door of his room was forced open. Mr. Kellogg lay dead on the bed and an empty laudanum vial and a noted told the rest of the story. The note read: "I have fought the battle and lost. Bury me deep and say as little about me as possible. A fool is better soon forgotten."

Mr. Kellogg was 41 years of age and was widely known among railroad men in the West. The motive for his act is not known.

A GENEROUS GIVER.

Death of Jacob Sleeper, a Noted Philan thropist—Some of His Charitable Deeds—Re Believed in Doing Good Without Fuss.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) BOSTON, March 31.—Hon. Jacob Sleeper, he widely known philanthropist, whose benefactions to public institutions and deserving poor have aggregated hundreds of thousands, died to-day at his home in Boston. He was born in Maine in 1802, and ton. He was born in Maine in 1802, and has lived in Boston since 1825. The bent of his mind was shown even in his youth, when he gave to the church the first $50 he carned by his own exertion.

In the wholesale clothing business and real estate transactions Mr. Sleeper acquired the large fortune which he has since so liberally returned to the world. It was accepted as an axiom among his acquaint. accepted as an axiom among his acquaint-ances that if any plan was broached to Mr. Sleeper in the name of Methodism a sub-scription was assured. If $1,000 was needed for parish work the committee could always expect $900 fram Jacob Sleeper. He was one of the incorporators of the Boston Weslevan Association, which was organized in 1831, and at the time of his death was its oldest member in age, and the only survivor of the original members. Mr. Sleeper was president of the association several years.

He was one of the three founders of Bos-ton University, and "Jacob Sleeper Hall," one of its finest buildings, is a memorial of his generosity to the institution. The New England Conservatory of Music also has its Sleeper Hall, named in honor of its benefactor. The Weslevan Missionary Home at Newton arose chiefly through Mr. Sleeper's aid. Over a hundred churches in New En-gland have been helped by him. His_personal benefactions were innumerable. Many a young man has been able to finish his course at Wesleyan only because Mr. Sleeper's hand lifted him over financial troubles, and poor families without number have tided over disaster and escaped suffering by his kindly help.

His modesty was as great as his generosity. To a friend he once gave the advice that evidently was his own principle: "Do as much good as you can; and make as little fuss about it as possible." In his home life Mr. Sleeper was the reverse of extrava-

Mr. Sleeper leaves a son and three daughters. Two of the latter are the wives of prominent New York publishers. He was officially connected with scores of in-stitutions. He served in the Massachusetts Legislature and in Governor Bank's coun-For 12 years he was one of the overseers of Harvard College. For 59 years he served as Superintendent of the Bromfield Street Methodist Church Sunday school.

WHACKED WITH AN UMBRELLA.

Tall Blonde Beats and Berates Two Brooklyn Gentlemen.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. 1 BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 31 .- Major tephen Pettus, the Secretary and Treasurer of the Rrooklyn Union Elevated Railroad, and Joseph Elliott, his brother-in-law, who is also a director in the company, were confronted by an angry woman described as a tall and thin blonde, just as they stepped from their carriage on Friday morning, and were about to enter the office of the company in Sands street, an explanation of the incident, Mr. Elliott said that the woman was a Mrs. Hannah Southworth. He could not say whether her husband was living or dead. He admitted that he was involved in some trouble with the woman, but it was a private matter.

A LIFE INSURANCE NOVEL.

Bateman Denies That He is Dead, and Telln Story Which is Not Belleved. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH !

INDIANAPOLIS, March 31 .- The marshal of Muncie has received a letter from H. F. Bateman, who was supposed to have been killed there last week, and upon whose person was found life insurance policies to a large amount on New York and Brooklyn companies. The letter is dated Terre Haute, March 28. It states that he is on his way to Colorado, but will stop in Muncie on his

He says the dead body found was that of a hard looking man whom he found in Mun-cie and took with him to hunt a man named Thompson, who lived near Muncie. The man was hard up, and Bateman gave him an old coat which must have contained his insurance papers. They recurned to Muncie, Bateman says, just in time for him to catch the westbound train. He gave the man money to pay for the horse and buggy, and told him to deliver them at the livery stable, and says the man's name was Neal, and he must have been killed and put on the track after he left. Muncie people don't believe the story, and , Bateman will

A HARD HIT AT GOULD. An Injunction Granted Against One of His

Many Railroad Companies. INPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

AUSTIN, TEX., March 31.-The Gould influence in Texas received a hard knock to-day when Judge W. McKey, of the District Court of Travis county, Texas, at the instance of the State, granted an injunction against the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway Company and its agents, restraining them from voting or controlling the stock owned by said company in the International and Great Northern Railway Company at the annual election of the Inter-The injunction grows out of a suit against the International Company for forfeiture of KENTUCKY PROHIBITION.

Man Shot For Insisting on Having So

Whisky. LOUISVILLE, March 31 .- At Burksville Thursday Matt Baker was shot and mortally wounded by his uncle, Dr. Sandridge and his cousin, Sandridge's son. 'The town is under local prohibition law. Sandridge keeps a drug store. When he refused to sell Baker whisky Baker followed him to his

After ordering Baker away several times, Dr. Sandridge fired upon him and his son followed with further shots. At last re-ports it was considered impossible for Baker

A Watchman Killed at His Post. SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1

SHEPHERDSTOWN, W. VA., March 31 .-Frank Beaham, a watchman on the Shenandoah Valley Railroad, was shot last night and instantly killed while on duty in his watchbox. The assassin used a 32-caliber revolver, and fired through a window. John Cameron, who lives in the vicinity, has been arrested on suspicion.

The Duke of Nassau's New Job. LUXEMBURG, March 31.-The Council of State has resolved to invite the Duke of Nassau to become Regent of Luxemburg.

THE PRIDE OF PARIS

PITTSBURG, MONDAY, APRIL 1, 1889.

Formal and Imposing Opening of the Modern Tower of Babel.

A GIANT OF IRON AND STEEL

Prime Minister Tirard Delivers the Oration of the Day.

THE ARMY AS A PATRIOTIC LEAGUE Emperor William Deeply Moved by the News of Samoan Disaster.

The great Eiffel Tower, which will be one of the pfincipal features of the coming Paris Exposition, was opened officially yesterday. Premier Tirard delivered the oration. An banquet given to M. Antoine he stated that France needed no other patriotic league than the army. The German Em-

and downs of French politics temporarily

The Eiffel Tower. The tower, which is destined to be one of the chief attractions of the approaching exposition, is constructed entirely of iron and steel. Its height is something over 300 Other structures in the near vicinity, which would be considered high in an isolated location, are dwarfed into mere pigmies in comparison. It is only at some distance from the base of the tower that its dimen sions can be realized, and even then the eye has difficulty in taking in the immensity of its proportions. A building of ordinary size could easily be placed under each of the gigantic archways which form the first stage of the ascent. An immense crowd assembled in the neighborhood to-day previous to the hour for the official dedication. At the given signal the national flag was run up on the topmost pinnacle, the auspicious event be-Prime Minister Tirard delivered the oration of the day. His address was confined mainly to matters relating to the exposition and the effect it would have on the indus trial progress of France.

THE ARMY SUFFICIENT. M. Antoine Says France Needs No Other

Patriotic League. PARIS, March 31 .- M. Antoine was honored with a banquet this evening, given him at Havre by his friends and admirers The occasion was enlivened by the delivery of some very enthusiastic speeches. The guest of the evening delivered an excitable address.

He strongly protested against anything approaching dictatorship for France, and denied that he entertained a desire for the organization of a new Patriotic League. A veritable league existed already, he said. It was the army.

A LITTLE SURPRISE,

The German Emperor Pays a Visit to the Flooded Districts.

Posen, March 31 .- Emperor William at rived here unexpectedly this morning. Imnediately after his arrival he visited the schoolroom, in which a large number of persons who were rendered homeless by the floods are temporarily sheltered. His Majesty gave a large sum of money to the committee having in charge the relief of Subsequently the Emperor inspected the carrison at Fort Pritiwitz. The visit of the Emperor created enthusiasm in the flooded

WILLIAM IS WORRIED.

The German Emperor Deeply Moved by the Samoan Disnater. BERLIN, March 31.-Emperer William was deeply moved by the news of the Samoan disaster. He immediately telephoned to Prince Henry and afterward conferred with Count Von Moltke, Prince Bismarck and others. All the papers congratulated Prince Bis-marck on his birthday. His political policy was the subject of many encomiums.

Count Herbert Pleased With England. LONDON, March 31 .- Count Herbert

Bismarck is so well pleased with his visit to England that he has expressed his inten-tion of returning to the country upon the occasion of the visit of the Emperor Will-A Bomb in a Church. ROME, March 31 .- While Father Agos tino was preaching in the St. Carlo Church great excitement in the congregation and several women fainted, but the preacher con Jerome Bonnparte All Right. LONDON, March 31.-Prince Jerom Bonaparte and two other survivors of the to-day a bomb was exploded. There was

ELEVEN GOOD INDIANS.

One Good Trapper Kills That Number of Murderous Reds-A Fight for Boaver Pelta-Vengeance for a Dead Brother.

WASHBURNE, N. D., March 31 .- News of a terrible tragedy has just reached this lace. Among the many who have trapped beaver up and down the river during the past eleven years were M. A. Williams and his brother Tom R. Williams. Two weeks ago these veteran trappers of McLen county packed up a few necessary arficles and started on one of their hunts and trapping expeditions. They had been gone two weeks before anything was heard from them. Encouraged by their good luck in trapping they kept on up the river until they came to the point where the Little Missouri empties into the great Muddy.

After a three days' journey up that little tributary to the great Missouri, they found an old deserted cabin and went into camp. Premier Tirard delivered the oration. An The traps were set again. They were set in immense crowd was in attendance. At a Indian Territory, and the boys knew it. peror is personally relieving the sufferers in the flooded districts.

(BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.)

PARIS, March 31.—For a short interval, at least, to-day the excitement of the ups

at least, to-day the excitement of the ups solved to watch and see what became of the game, and Tom volunteered to act as spy. His brother, during the night, was awakened by several shots fired in close proximity to the cabin, and sprung out of bed, to see his brother fall across the doorway a corpse. The cabin was surrounded at once by the redskins, to the number of 15. William see what became of the game, and Tom volunteered to act as spy. His brother, during the night, was awakened by several shots fired in close proximity to the cabin, and sprung out of bed, to see his brother fall across the doorway a corpse. The cabin was surrounded at once by the redskins, to the number of 15. William saw at a glance that his brother was dead, saw at a glance that his brother was dead, and what he wanted was revenge.

The Indians, knowing that but one man stood between them and a big catch of beavers' pelts, rushed upon the cabin door firing at random. William remained unture, and taking a Colts navy in either hand, opened upon the dastardly Reds. His aim was sure, and every shot spoke the death of a Redskin. Ten shots had been fired by the lone man and ten Indians lay dead. A panic seemed to seize the five who remained and they turned to beat a hasty remained and they turned to beat a hasty

Close by the door stood a double-barreled shotgun, heavily loaded with buckshot, and as the five Indians ran down the river bank, both barrels were emptied in their midst. One fell mortally wounded, but the other four got away, carrying buckshot in their red skins. Williams, severely wounded as he was, managed to bury his brother on the banks of the Little Missouri, and to drift down the river to Fort Stevenson.

JAY GOULD'S OFFER. He Will Give the Central Labor Union

$11,000,000 in Gold for a Co-Operative Industry-A Story

Be Verified.
NEW YORK, March 31.—At the meeting of the Central Labor Union a communication was read purporting to come from Jay Gould, through Washington Davis, 'a railroad contractor, stating that Mr. Gould was willing to hand over to the union $11,000,000 in gold with interest from 1889 if the Central Labor Union would be willing to adopt a plan for cooperative industry proposed by Mr. Gould, The Secretary will wait upon Mr. Davis tomorrow to see what the communication

At the meeting of the Central Labor Federation the locked out oystermen asked for aid, stating that unless it came to them soon their union would be broken up. Germorrow demand $3 50 a day and go on strike if it was refused.

TORTURED BY ROBBERS.

Beaten Terribly to Order to Tell Where His ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. MARTINSBURG, W. VA., March 31 .-James M. Billmyer was attacked by robbers at his residence near Vanclevesville, Saturday night, and subjected to the most brutal treatment. . About 9 o'clock three men knocked at his door, and asked for something to eat. As Billmyer turned to get them some food, one of the three hit him with a sandbag, knocking him sense-less. He was dragged inside and robbed, and one of the trio was left to guard him while the house was searched. By the time this was concluded Billmyer had revived. He refused to tell where his a terrible manner. He is in a serious condi-

THINKS SHE IS ELECTRIFIED.

Verona Baldwin, of California Notoriety, the Victim of Strange Hallucinations.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. Los Angeles, March 31 .- Verona Baldwin, who gained such notoriety several years ago by shooting Millionaire "Lucky' Baldwin in his hotel in San Francisco, is in jail here charged with insanity. She fancies she is filled with electricity and that she is related to a noble English family.

She has also made application to be appointed on the detective force and has worried the police so much that they propose to put her in an asylum. In spite of her life for the last few years she is still a remarkably handsome woman. bly handsome woman.

SHOCKED BEYOND MEASURE.

Several Young Ladies Made the Victims of a

Wicked Photographer. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SHEPHEBDSTOWN, W. VA., March 31 .-A number of young ladies of this place answered a Trenton, N. J., advertisement a week or so ago, the offer being that if 25 cents was sent on, together with a photo-graph, a dozen miniatures would be for-

Some of the pictures have turned up in town, the heads of the ladies being affixed to the bodies of artists' models, to the consternation of the parties interested.

A MARCH CYCLONE.

Dayton and Vicinity Terrorized by Powerful Wind. DAYTON, March 31 .- A March eyelone whistled over this valley all day, causing anxiety for exposed structures on the hilltops, like the Soldiers' Home and Lunatic Asylum, but no special damage is reported except to the uncompleted Sacred Heart Catholic church for the dome, towering 40 feet above the roof, tottered three hours in the storm and then fell with an awful crash into the

Indicted on Three Charges. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) CHARLESTON, W. VA., March 31 .- The pecial grand jury has returned three inlictments against S. A. Higginbotham, one for the murder of Simon Wallace, one for the murder of Bachel Wallace, his wife, and the third for the burning of the Hig-ginbotham Hotel and Wallace store. A Brother Murdered With a Knife. NEW YORK, March 31 .- During a quarrel to-night in the Chelsea Flats, 147 West disaster to the steamer Countess of Flanders, which was sunk of Dunkirk by the steamer Princess Hemiette, reached here to-day.

Twenty-eighth street, Reuben Sands, 21 years old, stabbed his brother George in the heart with a jack knife, killing him instantly. The fratricide escaped. He is a mulatto.

HE SPOKE RIGHT OUT

Postmaster General Wanamaker Talks to His Bible Class on

HIGH LICENSE AND PROHIBITION.

Preachers and Politicians Under the Influence of Beer.

THE AMENDMENT CAN BE ENFORCED. icense is a Partnership of State and Saloon Keeper to Ruin Men.

Postmaster General Wanamaker attended his Bible class as usual yesterday. He took occasion to come out pointedly in favor of the Constitutional amendment. He declared that prohibition can and will prohibit, and said that ministers, teachers and politicians who were afraid to come out for the amendment were under the influence of the liquor element. He made a strong lappeal for prohibition and advised his hearers to pray to God for help to carry the amend-

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—Postmaster General Wanamaker made his first public itterance to-day on the question of high license and prohibition. He declared in favor of the Constitutional amendment, and exhorted the 800 persons who listened to his words to work, pray and vote for it. Mr. Wanamaker reached Bethany Sun-day school at 2 o'clock. Half an hour later, while the Bethany Orchestra played the opening hymn, Mr. Wanamaker was in his lace of superintendent of the largest Sunday school class in America. After the usual exercises Mr. Wanamaker led the way to the church, followed by 400 members of his adult Bible class and 400 visitors. While the visitors were being scated, Mr. Wanamaker announced that it was quarterly meeting and that there was no regular son. He said he had been requested to talk of temperance. He read a portion of the fifth chapter of Ephesians, beginning with the verse, "Be not drunk with wine."

WE MUST BE TEMPERATE. He said: "What is the Christian idea of right? It is important that we get the right thought, because then we will do right and lead a happy life, The Christian idea is that we carefully guard our deportment. We should be temperate in all things that we do. The Bible says that he who does not do this is a fool. Now, a man who calls you a fool is not minded much, but when God writes us down as fools it is a very serious thing. We should be temperate in everything. That means the use of tobacco and of opium; it includes profanity and anger and impurity of life. We are to so talk that we shall build each other up." Mr. Wanamaker then referred to the wreck of the American men-of-war at Samoa, and spoke of the broken-hearted wives and children who were waiting for the return of their husbands and fathers, who had been dashed to pleces on the rocks.

VICTIMS OF LIQUOR AND LICENSE. He continued: "Right here in our city are broken hearted people beaten against the rocks of adversity by this tide of liquor and of license. The man who will not sign a temperance pledge though he does not need it himself, to help a weaker brother is not as much of a man as he thinks himself be. Christ said: Deny yourselves. Take up your cross and follow me. "There is no need to be drunk, to be under the influence of wine. The man who takes only a little and will not give it up is as much controlled by it as if he was an habitual drunkard. He is under the influence because he won't give it up. "What's the reason you won't stand out for the amendment? Because you like a glass of beer. You say, 'I want to be free to take an occasional drink if I feel like it.'

THE INFLUENCE OF BEER. "What influence keeps you from voting for the amendment? Isn't it the influence of the glass of beer? There are thousands of men in this city who do not get drunk. They say, 'We have the right to drink it if we want to, to sell it, to buy it or to give it away.' A man mayinot drink it at all, but he may be under the influence of the liquor spirit. He will say, 'I am a temperance man, but I am in business and the liquor people deal with me, so I won't say any-thing against it.' Now what influence is

"It's the same with many a politician. He's afraid he won't get votes, so he is silent on the liquor question. When a minister or a teacher refuses to speak out on this question he is ruled by the liquor interests. The drunkard who votes for prohibition is a freer man than the total abstainer who carries water on both shoulders and then votes for liquor, or to put it in the harness of high license.

MUST PRAY FOR THE AMENDMENT. "Just as the saloon keeper must answer for every glass you must answer for voting for liquor. It is simply whether or not we are in favor of the saloon. The liquor. It is simply a question o It isn't a question of high license. The quibble that prohibition does not prohibit has nothing to do with it. The law against stealing does not prevent stealing. The same power that puts the amendment on our Constitution will attend to the enforce ment of the law. It is our duty to make it as difficult to get liquor as it is to get poison.
"License means that the city, the State and the saloon keeper shall go into partnership to ruin men, to build up jails, alms houses, hospitals and houses of correction, and to keep up the taxes. God's going to count the votes. Vote for prohibition and you will be voting for him, for order, for re-ligion and for the highest civilization. He will see every ballot. When you go home to-night go down on your knees, every one of you, and pray God to help you to carry the amendment. Mr. Wanamaker then closed with a prayer.

A GALE AT CINCINNATI.

Houses Unroofed, Fences Blown Down and Other Damage Done. CINCINNATI, March 31,-A terrible gale of wind, accompanied by light rain, passed over the city from the southwest to the northeast between 4 and 5 o'clock this atternoon. Its maximum velocity as measured by the Signal Service office was 44½ miles per hour. Many houses in the southwestern and northern part of the city were unroofed and numerous fences were prostrated. Covington and Newport suffered in the same way. The damage, however, was light and no persons

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED.

A 16-Yenr-Old Boy Killed on the San Ancient Plan. MINNEAPOLIS, March 31 .- Gus Peterson, a boy about 16 years of age, was probably fatally shot to-day by Willie Woods, aged 15. Woods and a playmate found an old musket in a pile of rubbish and "didn't know it was loaded." Woods had some caps and they set about to frighten Peterson. As Peterson cutered the outhouse where the boys were playing Woods anapped the cap. The gun was loaned with buckshot, and the right ear and right cheek of Peter-

A COWBOY LOTHARIO.

breated for Burning a Hotel, Stenling the Proprietor's Money and Daughter, Then Running Away on Stolen Horses. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCHT

NEWARK, N. J., March 31.-Cowboy Herbert E. Coddington was arrested her on Saturday night at a late hour, on information furnished by a dispatch from W. W. Dunbar, District Attorney at Trinidad, Col. The telegram said the young man was accused of arson, larceny and kidnapping. He was found by Ser-geant Boylan at 98 Colden street, where his tepfather, Jarvis Ayers, resides. Herbert was with a 16-year-old girl, who elaimed to be his wife. Both wore som preros, and tried to look like rustlers from away up the gulch. She is pretty and her head is full of romantic ideas. He is a long-haired young man, who left Newark four years ago, and reached Colorado by way of Brazil, Cape Horn, Valparaiso and Lower California. Coddington is not more than 28 years, and has evidently imbibed a great deal of border literature. He was locked up at police headquarters, the girl remaining at Mr. Ayers' house Her name is Aurelia Ryle, and at home she was known as Reely. She is the daughter of A. H. Ryle, who keeps a miners' boarding house at Zopher mine, five miles from Trinidad, Col. Coddington said to-day that he went to work for Ryle in December last se a cook, and that one day in January Reeiy came to him and told him that she was ill-treated by her parents and had ar-ranged to clope with a young man who suddenly changed his mind and fied without her. She worked on his sympathies, he said, and as she was a good looking girl he stole two ponies from an Indian and rode with her to Trinidad where they met many friends who fully understood the circumstances and commended his course. They went over the border into New Mexico and were married that night, and got back again to take the train for the East.

to take the train for the East.

In the latter part of January Chief of Police Hopper, of Newark, received a letter from A. M. Ryle, of Zopher Mine, asking him to look out for Herbert Parker and his daughter Aurelia Ryle, as Parker was a Newarker and would probably return to his home. Ryle's lettersaid that Parker had stolen $200 and set fire to the writer's hotel before running away with the girl. He asked the Chief to watch for them and promised to send the necessary papers for their arrest. Young Coddington admitted to-day that he had been known by the name of Parker, but said that Mr. Ryle knew that his name was Coddington. He said the charge of arson was trumped up. This he said he would prove by a letter which Ryle sent him long after the escapade. He said Ryle informed him in this letter that the hotel had been burned, but he said nothing about missing any money.

The girl and Coddington's mother visited him at noon, and the former assured him that the would stick to him thereof thick that she would stick to him through thick and thin. He will be held to await the receipt of the papers from Colorado. JERSEY'S GRETNA GREEN.

Performing the Marriage Ceremony a Profitable Business in Camden. CAMDEN, N. J., March 31 .- It marriage s bliss, Camden ought to be Blissville. For four times the normal rate for a city of it is to get a girl willing to marry. Courting has become a secondary consideration as a preliminary to marriage in the sure of your license. Both parties have to publican candidate for Supreme Judge, pass a sort of civil service examination as pass a sort of civil service examination as servitude or otherwise, and after that the parents all around have to submit schedules of information under oath as to the condition of their minds as to the contemplated ceremony. If the parents are dead the fact has to be established. If they live in distant parts of the country they have to send on their affidavits just the same. If they are unknown, missing or beyond reach, it makes no difference, the law is the law, and the marriage cannot go on unless something that will pass for a parental consent is obtained by forgery, perjury, or in some other Naturally, the young people object, and therefore go to Jersey to avoid the bother caused by the Pennsylvania laws. One preacher makes marrying almost his sole business, uniting on an average 100 couples a month. Many justices of the peace also do a thriving business, and their revenue is quite an important one. A few years ago, when a marriage license bill was up before the New Jersey Legislature, the Senator from Camden county hotly protested against it, on the ground that it would deprive the ministers f his county alone of an annual revenue of It was bad public policy, he argued to drive that amount of money out of the State. The Legislature didn't pass the bill. The Senator's estimate was probably not an exaggerated one. The fees from Camden marriages are generally from $2 to $5.

LEFT HIS TRUNK FOR BOARD.

How a New York Assemblyman Got Out of Albany. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.! NEW YORK, March 31 .- There is a bad story affoat about Assemblyman Timothy been sued by his boarding mistress in Albany, and even that he had left his trunk, with $300 worth of clothing and diamonds, in the clutches of the Albany announced. But the same gentleman above woman. "Absolutely false," said little Jack Sullivan; "anybody who knows Tim knows he wouldn't leave his trunk." "Tell you all about it, fellows," the As-semblyman said; "Dominick Mullany, over in the Fift', and me hired lodgings in North Pearl street. Dom got sick and left. I couldn't keep such quarters. I sent a fellow with the rent for two weeks, to get my trunk. The boarding mistress said that she would see me. She did see me. She sent a lawyer after me with a summons from Justice Donaher's court. Now you know if Donaher was only down here she would not stand a ghost of a show, but you know he is in Albany, where she is. That's how I am being goosed. The boarding mistress can keep the trunk, diamonds, dress suit and

LOST IN THE PARK. Yellowstone Scout and a Soldier Among the Missing. LIVINGSTON, MONT., Margh 31.—It is about certain that a park scout named Wilson and one soldier who accompanied him are lost. They started three weeks ago for a trip through the park to see if there were any trespassers molesting the game. They were to have been back in ten days, but have not turned up. A relief party was started out this morn-ing by Captain Harris. The theory is that the unfortunate men have attempted to Bismarck's Offer to England. LONDON, March 31 .- The Daily Tele graph says that Count Herbert Bismarck has made a definite offer on the part of Ger-many to cede Damaraland to England.

cross the Yellowstone, and have through the ice.

A FEW SS OF HOPE

Brighten the Factor Some Who Have Not Smiled Since November.

BUCKEYE BOURBONS WIDE AWAKE.

They See Some Show for a Victory in To-Day's Cincinnati Election.

A REPUBLICAN ROW HELPS THEM OUT,

affi May End in a Democratic Legislature and Thus a U. S. Benator.

To-day's election in Cincinnati far exceeds the usual municipal contest in interest. Indeed, it rises almost to national importance. If the Democrats carry the city, as seems likely, they will be in good shape to carry the county for their legislative contest in the fall, "As goes Hamilton county so goes the State." A Democratic Legislature would give Senator Payne his longedfor opportunity to seek a "vindication." So all eyes in Ohio to-day center on Cincin-

(SPECIAL THUEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) CINCINNATI, March 31 .- To-morrow will be an important day in the political history of Cincinnati, and in the State also, for that matter, for the complexion of the next General Assembly and the election of Senator Payne's successor, it is thought, will be determined by the result of to-mor-row's contest here. There is a deal of trouble in the local camps. The causes have existed for at least two years, and the result was inevitable. The Republicans are in the worst fix, and the chances for their success are much against them. The existence of the organization known as the Loyal Republican League is responsible, directly, for the present chaos in the fold; or, rather, the exposure of its existence is responsible, for it has been an organization for several years, and it counts among its members gentle-men the mention of whose names would oc-casion a flurry of considerable proportions.

SPRUNG A LITTLE TOO SOON. The organization is unrepublican and was bound to result in injury to the party, but it would have been better for party organs to have waited till after the election to attack it. However, it was jumped upon, and pencils of unwonted sharpness showed to the public the hideousness of the "gang," resulting in a direct conflict in convention and the presentation by the Committee of Five Hundred of an independent ticket, with Daniel Stone for Mayor. The question has really become one of morals, and the closing of the saloons on Sunday is the hinge upon which to-morrow's result will turn. The present Mayor, Amor Smith, Jr., has made practically no effort to enforce the law, and after a couple of Sundays of quiet the saloons resumed their all-week custom, and the front doors have been as open on Sunday as on Saturday.

This fact was the first thing that induced the last five years there have been recorded at the City Clerk's office here from 4,000 to 5,000 marriages annually, which is about four times the average annually which is about follow in Smith's tracks, has been disclosed, this committee has nominated a strong ticket which, while it cannot be elected, will poll at least 8,000 votes, most of which will be Republican, and get a license to marry in Philadelphia than

thus will the DEMOCRATIC TICKET BE ELECTED, Quaker City. The great thing is to make almost as a whole. General Noves, the Repass a sort of civil service examination as to their age, sex and previous condition of shipwreck. Such a result will give the Democrats control of the municipal machinery, and if with it they do not elect the Democratic Legislative ticket next fall the surprise, even to sanguine Republicans, will be

A Democratic delegation from Hamilton county in the State Legislature would almost without a doubt make that body Democratic, and Senator Payne, with proper inducements, might realize his hope to suc-Arising from the differences in the Reublican ranks there are reports affecting the State machinery. The Times-Star, the organ of the "Mugwumpa" here, says that Governor Foraker, who has always been very thick with George B. Cox, one of the big 'uns in the Loyal Republican League, has determined to again be a candidate for Governor, and that as soon as opportunity offers—which means after the election—he will chop off the head of every Sherman man employed in any capacity und all-powerful Board of Public Affairs. under the FORAKER WILL NOT BUN. This may and it may not be simply a campaign rumor. A gentleman close to the Governor informed THE DISPATCH correspondent that, so far as Foraker's candidacy is concerned, there is not a word of truth in it. "The Governor," said he, "is truth in it. not and will not be a candidate for re-elecion." The same gentleman only laughed at the other rumor, saying it wasn't worth denying or contradicting, because the lie is given it by the fact that Foraker will not again be Governor, and the beheading of the gentlemen in question would, therefore, do him no possible good. It may seem a difficult matter to foretell who will likely be the successful contestant Dry-dollar Sullivan. It is said that he had been sued by his boarding mistress for the Republican nomination—because Bushnell has twice declined to run, while General Gibson, E. L. Lampson, referred to, a gentleman who has had years of experience in State politics, is of the opinion that despite Bushnell's declination he will be nominated on the first ballet, if not by acclaim. HALSTEAD WANTS VINDICATION.

Since the rejection by the Senate of the nomination of Murat Halstead as Minister to Germany, that gentleman's name is also used in connection with the Gubernatorial race, the talk being that if elected Governor, he would be a canditiate for Senator, thus being able to make a deal with Licutenant Governor Lyon, and get that gentleman off ine track—he now being an avowed candidate for Governor.

But, to return to Cincinnati politics, though every circumstance and combination of circumstances seem to indicate the defeat of the Republican ticket this spring, Mosby's supporters are quite confident, and it is a possibility that he may, with the assistance of the liberal class, pull through. How-ever, nobody will have an overwhelming majority, and to-morrow's contest is not likely to be definitely settled until the polls close at 4 o'clock. A COLORED DETECTIVE KILLED.

Murdered While Working Up Evidence in the Clayton Assassination.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) LITTLE ROCK, ARK., March 31 .- Joseph Smith, a negro detective, who, it is reported. was trying to work up evidence against certain parties at Plummerville, in relation to the Clayton murder, was shot and killed last night by a white man named Dan Richmond.

The killing has caused another sensation.
Richmond claims Smith attempted to draw a pistol on him. The killing occurred a mile from town.